

Information about Journal

The quarterly scientific journal «Humanitarian Bulletin of the Don State Agrarian University» was founded in 2022 by the Don State Agrarian University.

«Humanitarian Bulletin of the Don State Agrarian University» is registered with the Ministry of the Russian Federation for Press, Broadcasting and Mass Media (EI No. FS77-83019).

The journal is an online electronic publication and is available on the journal's website: <http://ej-dongau.ru>

Domain name: <http://ej-dongau.ru>

The main criterion in the selection of materials for publication is their compliance with the status of this publication and, above all, the relevance and level of public interest in the problem under consideration, the scientific and practical reliability of the material presented. These correspondences are determined by the members of the editorial board through peer review.

Headings of the journal «Bulletin of the Don State Agrarian University»

The journal is a multidisciplinary social and humanitarian publication. It publishes articles on the entire spectrum of the social sciences and humanities. The main headings of the journal: philosophy and cultural studies, political science, economic sciences, sociology, history, pedagogy and psychology, jurisprudence, philology.